

2020 Decoding the Code

An online program in Catholic ethics for the health and aged care sector

Who will benefit?

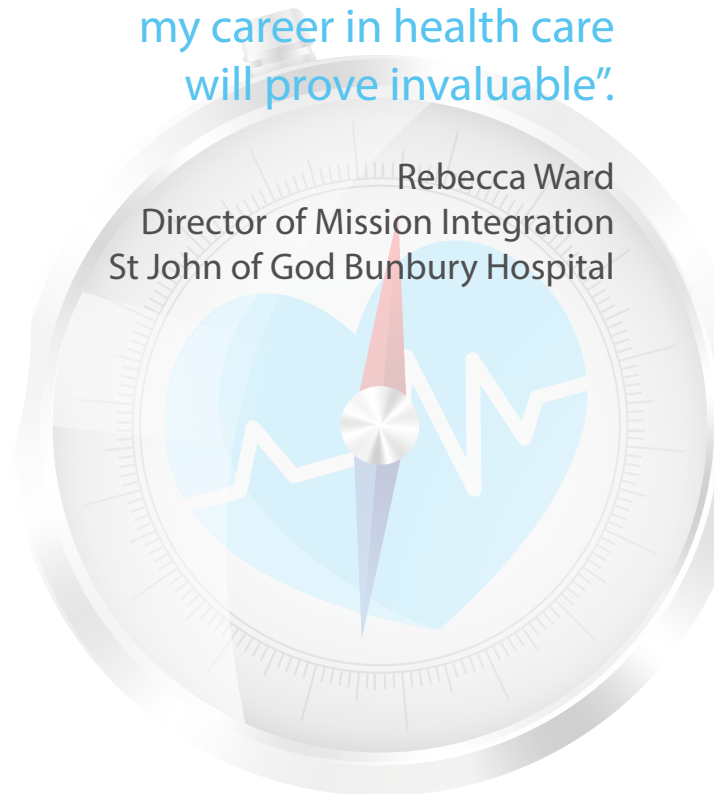

Organisational and clinical leaders, executives and other mission leaders and staff.

Why should I attend?

To enhance knowledge, practice and confidence in applying the principles of Catholic ethics to the ministry of health and aged care.

"The knowledge that I have gained through doing this course at the start of my career in health care will prove invaluable".

Dr Xavier Symons

BA Adv. (Hons), MA (Res.) (USyd),
PhD (ACU)

Dr. Xavier Symons is a Research Associate in the Institute for Ethics and Society at University of Notre Dame Australia in Sydney. He is the convener of the Institute's Bioethics and Healthcare Ethics research program.

Xavier's research interests range from ethical issues at the beginning and end of life, to conscientious objection in medicine and the role of religion in medical practice. His recently completed PhD thesis focused on the allocation of lifesaving healthcare resources.

Xavier has taught bioethics for several years, and has worked with the Catholic healthcare sector on several projects related to ethics education. In 2020, Xavier was awarded a Fulbright Future Postdoctoral Scholarship, and he will be a scholar in residence at Georgetown University's Kennedy Institute of Ethics from January to June 2021.

About the Course

The eight-session course will:

- Be based on the principles of adult learning and best practice online pedagogy
- Incorporate multi-media content from experts around Australia
- Integrate ethical principles via case studies and the day-to-day experience of participants
- Support ethical practices in both the clinical and wider organisational environment
- Offer access to feedback and group learning via a tutor and online community

What you will Learn

- Competence in identifying effective processes for resolving ethical problems
- Confidence in applying the CHA Code of Ethical Standards
- A deeper appreciation of the Catholic ethical vision and its core principles
- An understanding of the nature of ethics and ethical problems
- An ability to analyse and respond to specific cases especially those most common in Catholic health and aged care
- Access to resources to assist in addressing ongoing ethical challenges
